Re: GN Docket No. 09-40; Comments Regarding the Commission's Consultative Role in the Broadband Provisions of the Recovery Act

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Clearwire Corporation ("Clearwire") today filed the attached comments with the National Telecommunications and Information Administration ("NTIA") of the U.S. Department of Commerce and the Rural Utilities Service ("RUS") of the U.S. Department of Agriculture on the broadband provisions of the American Recovery and Investment Act of 2009 (the "Recovery Act"). These comments address the definitional questions raised by the Commission in its March 24, 2009 Public Notice in the above-referenced docket, and Clearwire requests that the Commission consider them in its consultative role under the Recovery Act.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Cathleen A. Massey
