

XT> Dear FCC,>>

>> We have no access to cable or DSL. We are limited to getting high speed >> internet via an aircard and have to pay twice as much as cable high speed.
>> Verizon tells us we are not close to their hub so they can't connect us with >> DSL. Comcast refuses to lay fiber here. Cox cable says we are in >> Comcast's territory so they can't help!! The local county government tells >> us they can't help since they are prohibited by federal law to provide >> internet services to citizens. This is an absurd situation where only the >> big companies benefit since they can lobby Congress. There is no lobby for >> the private citizens. It is truly a sad state of affairs.

>> It would be kind of the FCC to look into the matter and encourage the >> cable and phone companies to connect our location with fiber. Or help our >> local county government to lay fiber and connect us to high speed internet?

>> thank you.

>> sincerely,

>> Mrs. Sharma
