

Parents want the choice to have an offensive language, pornographic free home. YOU are taking the ability away for us to use the TV guardian, replace it with something else. I think it is ridiculous that it offered for free to the cable companies but they charge us for it as well. As for me and my house- we want the free market to reign here and give us a choice. WE do not want the filth in our homes.

Dotty Barco