

we need filters for foul language on cable and satellite channels on television. everyone talks of personal responsibility. how can we do that without this option. my children do not need to be exposed to this at young ages.