

Please make tv guardian or something similar available through cable companies. Most individuals have cable and it would be so wonderful not to have to worry about my kids hearing foul language, cursing and the like. I even hear it in commercials sometimes.

thank u

cindy burgess