

This is to express that me and my family want foul language filtering technology on our cable, TV, satellite, and all the things that lay movies or shows, in our house.

We should have a choice and the FCC should see to it that it stays that way.