

Please accept this as my official notice that the FCC must use the software for advanced parental control technology for filtering offensive content through HD televisions. We have seriously considered removing the televisions from our home due to the content on programs these days. I do not wish my children to learn inappropriate language (or any other inappropriate behavior) from TV, cable, satellite and other programs and movies.