

I am encouraging you to require that all cable companies have parental control filtering systems as part of their technology to help families control the language on all programs.