

Please be sure to provide the technology that blocks out foul language with digital cable and stellite when TV's are changed over to digital signals.

We should not have to listen foul language while watching TV,it needs to be blocked.

Why they even include such language in the first place is a mystery.

I don't wish to hear it and certainly don't want children to.

It's no wonder children are jaded and ignorant to good morals.