

I am asking that the FCC keep control of programming and language in the hands of the viewers not the media. Technological advancement should not take away the right of families to choose what language and programming will be viewed in individual homes. I am requesting that you see to it that parental controls for TV programming are also available when TV viewers are required to switch to digital programming so that language filters are available at viewers discretion.