

I want the FCC to know that my Family and I would like to have the ability to filter out foul language on television. We know this technology exists and think it is about time for the FCC to require the broadcast and cable companies utilize it.

thank you,

David Keller