

It is imperative that we be allowed the choice of software filtering options in our Cable access. Please let the free market work. Parents NEED to have all the tools possible and given the choice of how to help our children navigate through childhood without unnecessary and unwelcome negative influences. This should be our RIGHT, we should not be held hostage to some ideology. Thank you.