

Please let parents have the choice of foul-language filtering on TV, internet, etc. It would be nice to have the option of watching something that is a decent movie without all of the foul-language that is added these days. It has no worth in enhancing the movie and as a parent, I would rather my children was not exposed. Thank you for your time in considering this matter.