

Please correct the abusive language that is now on our TV programming. This kind of trash is not helpful but is degrading our families and society. This language is tearing down our country as a whole and is not adding to any kind real life drama. It is up to you to do your part of turning our country around.