

PLEASE, please, please include foul language control in the new devices that send tv shows and movies into the home. It is crucial in raising the children of this country that we can protect them from foul language when using cable, internet, satellite, etc. I can't tell you how strongly protective I feel about this issue and hope you will also. Thank you for your consideration.
Marcia Kelley