

Please make it possible for individual parents to block the filth that is broadcast and marketed to America. There needs to be a code of ethics that governs electronic media, and if there is no control we will have anarchy.