

I am fed up with the foul language and sexual content blantly shoved into my face on TV and the internet. I am asking that the FCC and not the media control the airways again