

Please make the technology available for parents to filter out foul language from TV, internet and DVD's. As parents, we need all the help we can get in order to keep our children young and innocent. Read a newspaper and see what trouble our culture has gotten us into.