

I will not watch television and neither will my family if we have to pay to have the foul language removed. We don't talk like that in our family and we don't want to hear it. If you require payment to have the foul language removed, most families will not get it, and they will hear the foul language thus their language will be reinforced and it will become the norm.