

I would like foul language filtering technology on tyv, cable, satelite and other devices that show TV programs and movies. We don like the language in TV and movies. This is just good business to give the parents the option to be able to control what our children can and can't learn from the TV. Please let the free market work! Let the parents have a choice!