

Parents need to be able to control foul language and adult content/situations that their kids are able to see on television.

The FCC should be leading the way on this matter, I should not even have to be writing this letter. You need to be doing much more concerning this matter.