

Dear FCC:

I can not believe that there is a more important mission for the FCC than to keep decency and civility guarded on the air waves. Political and religious free speech must be guarded. Vulgarity, pornography and obscenity must be censored. That is how you earn your paycheck. Do not water down your responsibilities during the digital TV conversion.

Thankyou For Your Efforts,

RT