

Please start requiring content ratings on commercials so that only those with appropriate content are shown during the "safe harbor" hours. I am very frustrated at how much violent and sexually suggestive (or worse) content is in commercials that are shown during these hours. We have been shocked that while watching a few family friendly shows lately, our kids were exposed to commercials showing scantily clad women, murder, rape, or 2 characters ripping their clothes off.