

Please allow parents the ability to have a Foul Language Filtering Technology in order to protect our children from profanity being used throughout our country. If we don't have that option, I'm seriously considering removing our television from our home as there is hardly anything decent for them to watch!!