

Please make foul language filter controls available to parents with the new HD system arriving this summer. Leaving it to the discretion of the television companies whether or not to purchase this technology is not acceptable.