

I want to be able to control the language children hear when they watch various media. I want to be able to use advanced parental control technology. Allow cable and satellite companies to offer this important feature to us, especially after the digital switchover. We want it and need it now!

Let the free market work. Listen to those of us who request and need this filtering control to protect our children!