

I pray that you will keep the foul language filters on TV. The programs that require foul language to be an intragral part of their dialogue are offensive. I am constantly reminded of what my mother always told us, "if you can't talk without cursing, you don't have enough sense to be talking."
Thank you, Libby Capps