

My wife and I, as well as many other millions of concerned parents in the USA, try to protect our children from the growing immorality and profanity found in the media today. For this reason, we URGE the FCC to require that TV Guardian or a similar system be available and offered as an option when digital TV is implemented.