

I believe it is highly necessary that the new digital boxes and TVs be equipped with the ability to block out offensive shows and languages. Our children are hearing it enough on the streets, they should be able to watch a show on TV without hearing language that they are not allowed to say. It sends the wrong message. I strongly asked that you allow/require or by whatever means, the cable and TV companies to insert or download the parental controls.