

The State of Wisconsin supports the petition filed by NPSTC to expand the area where 470-512 MHz frequencies can be used for land mobile operation. The proposed action would increase frequency availability in some of the most congested areas of the country thereby providing increased security and efficiency.