

I feel that the FCC should use every option available to protect our children by filtering indecent and vulgar language acts.