

I am very much interested in technology that would allow me to have better control over what my family views and hears over various media outlets. I would support legislation that advanced parental control technology should be made available for filtering offensive content in TV programming and movies; whether viewed on TV, over the Internet, cable, satellite, DVD Players, Blu-ray players, gaming consoles, or other video devices.