

DEar Friends,

It is not in the public interest to have radio ads on school buses. Children should have the right to an advertisement free environment when in public hands. We wouldn't let someone smoke on the bus because it is not healthy for the children. It is the same with radio ads. Thanks