

I think BusRadio is a horrible idea. BusRadio preys upon the minds of a captive audience of children who have enough commercial and media clutter in their lives as it is. I intend to drive my child to school if Bus Radio is part of her school experience. I will happily boycott bussing if it means being able to boycott BusRadio.