

Please stop this nonsense. We want to raise children with values. Parents should determine the appropriate content of what children listen not third parties.