

Please stop the radio on school buses. My children come home with words to songs that we do not approve of and apparently have no choice in letting them listen to them. Thank you, a concerned parent