

Is it child abuse? Would you force anyone to listen to inappropriate artist? Artist that sing about blond dykes, but fu, artist like Thugs in harmony who sing about, f in the cops? If they were adults they would object and sue, if they were forced to listen. But when a school district does it for money and encourage children to buy their CD's, That is child abuse.

Bus Radio Lies and deceives. At a Denver School Board Meeting, Jay Stickney told the school board that I never even listened to Bus Radio. I have and I can prove both.
