

I am deeply opposed to having commercial broadcasts on public school buses. Children on public buses are a captive audience and it is completely wrong for them to be exposed to whatever the media decides is in their best interests - probably lots and lots of junk food ads. As a parent, I would feel overridden by such a measure. Please STOP this crazy BusRadio idea now. Thank you