

Regarding RM-11306 3KHZ bandwidth for digital communications. I am opposed to this. First and foremost, there is no need for this kind of bandwidth. It will cause all types of interference to CW and SSB along wth other digital signals. We are in the process of using "smaller" amounts of bandwidth for more efficiently. I currently use 30HZ bandwidth using WSPR. Thank you for allowing my input!