

I have the converter box and am set up for DTV, however, everytime a vehicle goes by my house or someone uses a mower, the reception gets crazy or goes to "no signal". I spend so much time getting up and moving the antenna, it is driving me crazy. Sometimes the station just goes off right in the middle of a show. Is this any better, really?