

We are writing to protest the high cost for inmate calls. There are many families of inmates who want to hear from their loved ones, but can't afford the high cost. Everyone right now is going through tough economic times, but please don't try to make money off the working poor, inmate families, who only want to stay in touch with their loved ones.