

The Part 95 Subpart D 95.413 Rule 13[9] prohibiting communications with stations over 155.3 miles (250 kilometers) away should be eliminated because a station operator has no control whatsoever over radio wave propagation due to "skip" (multiple bounces of the radio signal off the D-layer region of the ionosphere.)