

I once heard that a cable company cannot increase prices without improving service. IMON Cable company has taken 3 stations off of the cable lineup and increased their rates. Is that allowed.