

Please mandate captioned telephone relay service in Massachusetts & nationwide so my hard of hearing mother and aunt can enjoy talking on the phone again. It is very frustrating for them and can't understand doctors who call or if there is an emergency. Please reconsider this bill so the average person can take advantage of this instead of a select few.