

I believe graphic violence on TV has a negative affect on children's minds and how they react to the world. Either you hate it or you get additicted to it, that's when people can't get enough of it and it begins to bleed over into everyday life. I should know, my husband was murdered over a fist full of dollars.