

My twin sister is hard of hearing as am I. She is using the CapTel service in New York State and it has changed her life appreciatively. She is now able to be independent and not have to rely on the goodness of others to make and hear her telephone calls. I think that I, along with other struggling hard of hearing residents of Mass. should have the right to improve our lives too.