

The Captel phone has been the best thing for my 82 year old mother who is using a phone for the first time in 30 years. My father always handled all the phone calls until he passed away 2 years ago. My mother would not be able to live alone if it were not for the Captel phone. We are all very happy with it and feel it should be available to anyone who needs it.

Karen Sloan