

I am grateful for the opportunity to express my strong support for the captioned telephone service. It makes such a considerable difference in the lives of those of us with hearing impairments.