

I feel strongly about phone caption being available in all states. This is a necessity for those that have hearing impaired problems. It helps them to become more independent and less of a burden to others. It helps with their self esteem as they are able to blend into a normal life like others around them. Will greatly appreciate all that you can do on behalf of the hearing impaired.

Sincerely,
Lydia Carbuccia