

I just received notice that X M Radio is increasing their rates to cover a increased royalty fee. I underatand that according to the merger agreement approved by the FCC, they were restricted as to how much they could raise their monthly rates.